

Dr. Jorge Guerra Gonzalez, Court expert

His vita expresses the search for justice, mainly for vulnerable people. Jorge Guerra, PhD, studied Law, Social-Economy, Sustainable Development Cooperation... at present Psychology. He teaches and makes research at the German Leuphana University. Concerning Family Law he understood that a multidisciplinary approach was needed, and that it is paramount to meet the reality of (conflicting) families in order publish or teaching how to best safeguard the children involved. Hence he became mediator, advocate of the child, right-of-visit caregiver and family coach. From this broad background including theory and practice he is actively involved in changing the ways and paradigms to PA at an international level.