

Dr. Vittorio Vezzetti, Pediatra

Življenjepis

Vittorio Vezzetti is born in Milan; paediatrician, he works in Insubria Health Protection Agency. He has been relator or teacher in more than 100 conferences in Italy and abroad regarding the crisis of the family and the custody of the children. He he has been several times in audition by the Italian Parliament during the proceeding to change the national law on the joint custody. He's author of several official questions to the Italian and European parliament. He has collaborated or written several proposals of law on the custody of the children in Italy and also abroad. He has conceived the first italian civil actions of minors and associations of mothers and fathers against the parent not allowing the children relations with the other parent. He's author of different articles on the custody of the children and has written an italian best seller on this topic "Nel nome dei Figli". His article "The interest of the children in different family structures" has been translated in 9 languages, while the comparative research "The european children and the divorce of their parents" was presented by the author in the European Parliament in Strasbourg and to the High Commissioner for Human Rights (ONU) . Actually his interest is focused on biological health consequences of childhood adversity.